A Beautiful and Inspiring Memor-

THE NEW YORK G. A. R. AROUSED

A. Magnificent Avenue, Marked With Bronze Statues, to Lead to the Temple and the Tomb—"The Avenue of Victory."

New York, Sept. 27.—The Lafayette post of the Grand Army of the Republic last night, on the suggestion of General Egbert L. Viele, appointed a committee to perfect the plan for the celebra-

"The members of the Lafayette post were impelled to assume the initiative in this matter," General Folsom explained, "because of the neglect of General Grant's tomb, through the means of subscriptions to be made and secured through the Grand Army of the Republic."

taken by the national encampment at its recent session in Milwaukee. A resolution was there adopted requesting Mrs. Grant to consent to the removal of the remains of her husband from the temporary tomb in which they are deposited to

When that action of the national encampment was made public, I, for one, made up my mind that the occasion of the resolution should be removed, and that the disgrace, shame and reproach which attach to the city of New York for the

the memory of the soldier president and savior of the Union, General Grant, should no longer obtain. The proper location of the monument and tomb is at the termination of One Hundred and Twenty-Second street, and there is where the Grand Army committee proposes that it shall be placed. One Hundred and Twenty-second street is an avenue eighty feet wide throughout, and over this avenue it is proposed to construct a viaduct, which, when completed, will afford a vista of something like "100 feet terminating in a temple supported on thirteen columns and representing the Union in its original estate. This viaduct would be called 'The Avenue of Victory,' and is to be marked at intervals by bronze statues of the generals of the Emperors, who, caused by the Emperor (Gaius)

Through the temple will rise a shaft, composed of thirty-eight members, representing the thirty-eight states reunited by Grant's victories and bound together with a bronze ribbon inscribed with the victories which secured the reunion of the states, the whole being surmounted by a herold statue of General Grant in bronze. The tomb proper it is proposed to place west of the temple, and independent of that structure, in comparative seclusion, where it will conduce to a feeling of reverence, and be reached by a footpath.

BASEBALL.
Boston, Pittsburg, Cleveland and New York
(the League Winners)

INDIANAPOLIS, Sept. 27.—Wild pitching and poor fielding was the cause of the Hoosiers' defeat to-day. Shreve was knocked out of the box in the second inning. Score—Indianapolis 8, Boston 15. Base hits—Indianapolis 14, Boston 14.

Pittsburg, Sept. 27.—To-day's game was a pitchers' contest, Staley winning by a scratch. The visitors did their utmost to win. In the ninth inning a single, two bases on balls, three stolen bases and a passed ball yielded but one run, as Staley struck out two men, and a lucky fly ended the game. Score—Pittsburg 4, Philadelphia 3. Base hits—Pittsburg 8, Philadelphia 8. Errors—Pittsburg 0, Philadelphia 4. Outlines—

CHARGES AGAINST THE K. OF L.
Powderly and Other Prominent Knights
To Be Placed on the Stand.
St. Louis, Mo., Sept. 27.—During the Missouri

the strike on 10-10-1910 a train was wrecked at Wyandotte, Kan. Several strikers were arrested and charged with causing it, but subsequently discharged. Two of them began suit for malicious prosecution. The testimony in these cases was taken here. A deposition was made to the effect that the knights of labor at the time took charge of the cases of the train wreckers, and spent $30,000 in their defense. Also that out of spite at the failure of the strike the Missouri car works at St. Charles, Mo., and the Vandalla freight depot in East St. Louis, were destroyed by fire and plan devised to blow up the bridge here by floating a dynamite-laden barge against; but this was not carried out. The names of the actors in these events were given, and it was stated that men much higher in the ranks of the Knights knew much about these things.

In view of these statements, it is said the Master Workman Powderly and Secretary Hays, when they arrive here next week, will be put through the affidavit mill, and other members of the executive board will be compelled to tell what the Local knights say they have nothing to fear and declare that this move is a bluff by the Missouri Pacific.

The German Scottish Rite Masons.

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—The supreme council of the Perceau Scottish Rite Masons has issued a proclamation in regard to the trouble with the order, in which it says that it was merely with a desire to enter into friendly relations that such a proposition was made in April, 1888, to the Grand College of rites, which council then no longer understands it to be a purely Scottish Rite body attached to the Grand Orient of France. These relations have never been consummated; the statements of its enemies to the contrary notwithstanding. The council, however, is loyalty to all masonic bodies, and in proof thereof announces that the proposal in question is withdrawn and everything set aside whereby it may be claimed that fraternal relations have been effected between the Grand Orient of France, on the one hand, and the Grand Orient of the United States of America, on the other.

The Banquet of the Veterans.
CINCINNATI, Sept. 27.—The veterans of the Arm of the Tennessee are returning to their homes to day. The banquet last night lasted till 2 o'clock.

A. M. General O. O. Howard was the last speaker and roused them to a high pitch of enthusiasm at his peroration. He spoke to the last, "Atlanta ours, and fairly won." He spoke deprecatingly of the burning in effigy of the postmaster there as a bad sign. "It does not lessen the lawless charthat he is an officer of the United States simply doing his duty. The lion of possession and power only sleepeth. It is as easy to protect a United States postmaster in Georgia, as to protect a venerable United States judge in California. (Transmissions applause)

The English Brewery Syndicate.
PITTSBURG, Sept. 27.—H. D. Porteous, an English capitalist, and one of the largest importers of American flour at Liverpool, is authority for the statement that there is not a single English land who know any of the men who compose these English brewery syndicates, etc. None of the big business men of Liverpool, London, or any other of the large cities know anything about such transactions, therefore he classes the story

Wanted by Dime Museums.
New York, Sept. 27.—A number of enterprising dime museum managers are trying to gain possession of baby Beatrice, the bogus heiress of Ham-

ton. Hamilton has made temporary provision for the child, yet Mrs. Rupp is dissatisfied with the amount of money paid her by Hamilton. It is stated that Mary Donnelly, the nurse, will appear among the freaks at a museum in New York in a few weeks and will be paid $25 a week.
